Winner of the 2014 American Prize Oratorio Award, tenor Daniel Kamalić has been praised for his “silver-toned” (Chris Ruel, OperaWire), “big, stunning voice” (Chris Buchanan, Berkshire Fine Arts) with “exciting, tremendous force and a burnished tonal quality” and “ravishing, featherweight pianissimos” (Larry Kellum, Middletown Town Times). He made his European debut in 2012 with Kvartet Veljak in Croatia and his Israeli debut in 2018 with the Israel Chamber Orchestra in Tel Aviv. An accomplished singing actor, he is equally at home in both opera and operetta, and in addition to the repertoire standards, he is a frequent performer of new music, having created roles in operas by composers Eric Sawyer, Charles David Younger, Thomas Oboe Lee, Ronnie Reshef, Bradley Detrick, Francesco Santelli, Natan Zamansky, and Iris Karlin.
