Winner of the 2014 American Prize Oratorio Award, lyric-dramatic tenor Daniel Kamalić has been praised for his “big, stunning voice” (Chris Buchanan, Berkshire Fine Arts) with “exciting, tremendous force and a burnished tonal quality” and “ravishing, featherweight pianissimos” (Larry Kellum, Town Times). He has performed regularly with Connecticut Lyric Opera and Opera Boston, as well as with the Boston Modern Orchestra Project, Hartford Opera Theater, Pioneer Valley Symphony, Maryland Lyric Opera, New Opera NYC, Long Island Opera, Rochester Lyric Opera, the Rochester Oratorio Society and the New York State Ballet. In addition to the repertoire standards, he champions new and rarely performed works. Mr. Kamalić has created roles in operas by composers Eric Sawyer, Charles David Younger, Thomas Oboe Lee, Ronnie Reshef, Bradley Detrick, Francesco Santelli, and Natan Zamansky. He made his European debut in 2012 with Kvartet Veljak in Croatia, and made his Israeli debut in 2018 with the Israel Chamber Orchestra in Tel Aviv.
